TU, TH, SU: Day 2 The Passion of Christ

Free time in the morning to explore Oberammergau, with free entrance to the local museum. Lunch at your hotel.

The story of Christ's Passion, beginning with the entry into Jerusalem and ending with the resurrection and transfiguration. Each performance starts at 2:30 pm and ends approximately 10:30 P.M., with a three-hour dinner break/intermission from 5:00 to 8:00 P.M.

Over the years, the text and music have been revised with new settings and costumes designed and new productions created in countless rehearsals. The play is performed in German, but printed English translations are available. It is a moving and spectacular experience despite the language difference. The Passion Play takes place outdoors where the sky and mountains are the backdrop. A wonderful spectacle of pageantry. More than 2,000 citizens make up the actors, singers, instrumentalists and stage technicians that bring the play to life in approximately six hours of playing time.

The Oberammergau Passion Play

The Passion of Christ, performed by the villagers of Oberammergau, in Southern Germany, at the end of each decade. It is performed entirely by the locals in fulfilment of a vow made in 1633, when their village was saved from the plague. The play was first performed in 1634. The year 2010 marks the 41st time that the play will be presented in Oberammergau.
