ENGELBERG TOUR

On a scenic route, crossing the Albis Pass and through landscapes along the shores of the Lake reach the charming town of Lucerne. Enjoy the drive meanwhile your guide narrates about the Swiss history and points out landmarks. Take in the views during a short photo stop en route and enjoy a brief city tour in Lucerne, where your guide points out the main attractions of this charming town. Enjoy then some leisure time to explore the quaint Old Town on your own. The journey continues to Engelberg, a Swiss alpine village located in the valley under the north-face of Mt. Titlis. Surrounded by mountains, the village was originally founded by Benedictine monks. Their imposing baroque-style monastery with the largest organ in Switzerland still dominates the centre. Stroll around the village, visit the monastery with its cheese making facilities during your approx. 3 hours leisure time. In the late afternoon, return via Lucerne to Zürich.
