Day 1 | Rome

Arrive in Rome by own arrangements. Transfer to your hotel. Optional: Why not take a city tour in the afternoon to get an overview of this fascinating city? Rome is not only the capital of the state, but also home to the Vatican City in the middle of the city. This is where the spiritual leader of the Catholic Church, the Pope, lives and works. Speaking of God: You love ice cream? In the Gelateria Giolitti over 100 different varieties of ice cream await you – simply divine. Overnight in Rome.

Duomo, Milan

Day 2 | Rome

Explore «the Eternal City» at your leisure. In Rome, you cannot help but deal with the history of the city. Vatican, Roman Forum, the Trevi Fountain, everywhere the eyes are pampered with history and art. Speaking of pampering: Browse through the lively markets and enjoy an aperitif in Trastevere, the nightlife district of the locals. You will love it, promise! Then meet for dinner with a local - "when in Rome eat with a Roman" (this can be booked for day 1 instead). Overnight in Rome. (B,D)

Day 3 | Rome to Venice

Depart Rome and travel by train to Venice, the capital of northern Italy's Veneto region. Built on more than 100 islands in a lagoon in the Adriatic Sea. The city for lovers, has no roads just canals, including the Grand Canal thoroughfare lined with Renaissance and Gothic palaces. Romantic streets, hidden squares and idyllic canals leading to the central square, Piazza San Marco and the St. Mark's Basilica and the Campanile bell tower give visitors numerous opportunities to explore this unique city. Overnight in Venice (B).

Vittorio Emanuele II Monument, Rome

Day 4 | Venice

In the morning you have the opportunity to visit the Doge's Palace and enjoy the unique view over the lagoon city from the observation deck of the Campanile. In the afternoon perhaps a romantic gondola after some lunch in a typically Venetian café riding through the canals with many photo opportunities or a boat trip to Murano to the world famous glass blowing shop the Murano Glass Factory to purchase the real item. Overnight in Venice (B)

Day 5 | Venice to Milan

Depart Venice and travel by train to Milan. Milan is well known for shopping and cultural highlights such as the Cathedral or Leonardo Da Vinci's world-famous image «The Last Supper». Overnight in Milan. (B)
