Share in one of the best of German Christmas traditions. In the afternoon, depart Frankfurt. Rudesheim, the most famous of all old wine villages, is the delightful historic setting for its Christmas Market of the Nations with 120 beautifully decorated stalls from 12 countries all around the tiny lanes, yards & courts.

Enjoy the tempting aromas, the festive glow and wonderful sounds of the season. Handicrafts and gifts, ceramics and candles, wood carving, glass art, dolls, candied almonds, ginger bread, traditional Christmas baking, grilled sausages, the hot mulled wine and delicious regional specialties. Marvel in the life-size Nativity scene on the market place and the magical Christmas trees.

On to the festively decorated restaurant for a typical German Christmas dinner: Consommé, savoury roasted goose with dumplings, gravy and red cabbage – simply delicious!! Reward yourself with a glass of wine or a tasty Christmas desert. Return to Frankfurt.

PRIVATE ROTHENBURG CHRISTMAS MARKET WALKING TOUR

DURATION APPROX. 90 MINUTES

Long nights and shorter, colder days: if you want to get the best out of a German tradition, then a visit to Rothenburg's Reiterlesmarkt is a must during the Advent period. Every year, the medieval town of Rothenburg is transformed into a winter's fairytale.

As far back as the 15th century, Advent festivities have been accompanied by a wonderful Christmas market. This market can look back on over 500 years of living heritage that has hardly changed a lot since its historic origins. To keep body and soul together, treat yourself to a glass of mulled wine, enjoy an original Rothenburg Snowball, or, if you have a heartier appetite, satisfy your hunger with a grilled sausage or roast chestnuts. Rothenburg is also known for the Käthe Wohlfahrt Christmas market – Käthe Wohlfahrt is a specialist for Christmas decorations and Christmas items, based on German traditions.

CHRISTMAS MARKET TOUR BERLIN

Get into the spirit of the season and visit three of Berlin's spectacular Christmas markets.

Pick up a handcrafted gift for the special someone and sample traditional foods such as stollen, candied apples, cookies, and big German sausages. What's the worst that could happen? Even in the coldest weather, a "Glühwein" or two – the hot mulled wine that is a staple of the markets – will have you feeling warm and cosy in no time.

Please note: this tour uses public transport, an AB Day Pass is required approx. Euro7, purchased locally.
