Day 1 | Frankfurt

Arrival at Frankfurt airport and transfer to the hotel. The rest of the day is free to spend at your leisure. At this special time of the year, you can visit several Christmas Markets in the city: in Römerberg, on the Paulsplatz, on Mainkai, in Hauptwache, or on the Friedrich-Stoltze-Platz. You can also make the most of your visit of Frankfurt to discover the Goethe House, the birthplace of this great German poet, or go shopping on the famous commercial street "Zeil". Accommodation at the Hotel Mövenpick Frankfurt City*.

Day 2 | Frankfurt - Würzburg - Rothenburg ob der Tauber

Travel from Frankfurt to Würzburg and enjoy a sightseeing tour of a city with more than 1300 years of history. The old residence of Würzburg is a UNESCO Heritage site. Continue to Rothenburg ob der Tauber, the most beautiful city along the famous Romantic route. Its small streets and historic buildings remind us of medieval times. Visit the city and tour the Christmas market. Accommodation at the Hotel Altes Brauhaus ****.

Day 3 |

Rothenburg ob der Tauber - Nuremberg

Continue to Nuremberg, a old city of History but also of Culture, even more charming during winter. Explore the city with your guide: it is the perfect time to discover the old town and the several places full of the magic Christmas atmosphere. The Christkindlesmarkt, Nuremberg's Christmas market, is one of the most famous markets in Germany. With almost 400 years of history, the market draws more than 2 million visitors a year. One should not miss the opportunity to find some Christmas gifts and taste some German traditional pastries with „Glühwein“ (german hot wine punch). Accommodation at the Hotel Maritim*.

Day 4 | Nuremberg - Dresden

In the morning depart for Dresden. Dresden is one of the most beautiful cities in Germany and a combination of tradition and modern times determine the cultural charm of this city. Visit the famous "Striezelmarkt" Christmas market, which is first documented in 1434. Every year more than 2.5 million people visit Dresden's Altstadt square to soak up the bustling atmosphere of this charming market. Accommodation at the Hotel Maritim*.

Day 5 | Dresden - Berlin

In the morning City Tour of Dresden. Visit the recently restored Frauenkirche church, the famous Dresden Opera House, the Imperial Zwinger palace and enjoy a stroll along the Elbe River. At noon, travel to Berlin. The German capital is one of the most important cities in Europe, thanks to its cultural dynamic, its numerous historical sites, and its various activities. Visit one of many Christmas markets in this impressive capital. Accommodation at the Hotel Maritim proArte ****.

Day 6 | Berlin

In the morning you will start the day with a visit to the TV tower for a spectacular view over the capital. Afterwards you visit Berlin's many wellknown historic locations, like Unter den Linden avenue, the State Opera and the Brandenburg Gate. There will also be time to explore the modern parts of the city, such as the German Parliament and Potsdam Square. The afternoon is free to explore the city at your leisure to enjoy this last day in Germany with the charming December atmosphere. Accommodation at the Hotel Maritim proArte ****.

Day 7 | Berlin

After breakfast transfer to the airport. End of services.

GERMAN CHRISTMAS MARKETS

The magical world of traditional German Christmas Markets is casting more visitors under its spell every year! The historic Christmas Markets, held in cities, towns and villages throughout the country, are becoming increasingly more popular, due to the enchanting Festive Season atmosphere they evoke.

The Christmas fairs and markets of Germany are unique. If you're tired of commercialism taking over this holiday period and would like to get right away for a real traditional and romantic Christmas Market, you may wish to consider heading to Germany where gifts are not mass-produced but craft work of real quality!

Here you can purchase all kinds of Christmas merchandise and gifts, especially traditional things such as crib figurines, toys, wood-carvings, marionettes, candles and lambskin shoes. Many are difficult to resist - as will be the glass of delicious mulled wine you are offered and the baked apples that are very welcome on crisp winter days.

The ambience is further enhanced by the aromas of hot chestnuts, grilled sausages and other tasty snacks! Youngsters especially, will be attracted to the gingerbread biscuits known as Lebkuchen, marzipan figures and other sweets.
