Day 1 | Munich
Upon arrival in Munich transfer to hotel by own arrangements.

Day 2 | Berlin
Take the time and discover the city at your own pace with a regular city tour (Hop on/Hop off bus). Your ticket is valid for 24 hours. Visit Berlin's famous sights such as the Kurfürstendamm, the Brandenburg Gate and Potsdam square. During the Advent period, Berlin is bathed in colorful festive lights. The grand boulevards and squares, as well as the small side streets and museums, are beautifully decorated and radiate the holiday spirit. The Gendarmenmarkt, one of the most beautiful squares in the city, provides a charming setting for the traditional Christmas market.

Day 3 | Berlin - Dresden - Berlin
In the morning, you travel by train to Dresden. The capital of the Federal State of Saxony is famous for its many baroque buildings and churches along the banks of the Elbe river. Explore the highlights of this stunning baroque city on a regular Hop on/Hop off city tour and visit the famous Christmas market "Striezelmarkt", one of the oldest and largest Christmas markets in Germany. The market is named after a traditional Dresden Christmas cake, known as 'Strietzel'. Afternoon return to Berlin by train.

Day 2 | Munich
Today explore Munich with a regular tour, using the Hop on/Hop off tourist bus. You can disembark at any stop and take your time to get to know the city. Highlights include the Marienplatz square, the City Hall, the famous Church of our Lady and the Viktualienmarkt street market. Explore the traditional Christmas market of Munich, located around the Marienplatz square with its historic City Hall. A few steps away, you will find the largest nativity market in Germany. Overnight in Munich.

Day 3 | Munich - Nuremberg
In the morning you travel by train to Nuremberg. Free time to visit the old town and browse the most famous Christmas market in Germany: the „Christkindlesmarkt“. This almost 400-year old market attracts more than two million visitors a year. Your „Christmas Market Pass“ includes several local specialties, such as the „Bratwurst“ sausage, a spice bread and, of course, a glass of mulled wine. Afternoon return to Munich by train.
